

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, May 12

1998

Savings Bond Campaign Kickoff Planned for Thurs. at Marshall

The 1998 U.S. Savings Bond Campaign kickoff ceremony is set for 1:30 p.m. Thursday in Morris Auditorium. John Helmke, area manager for the U.S. Treasury Department in Birmingham, Ala., will provide the latest information on Series EE Savings Bonds. The Jacksonville State University Show Choir will perform. All Marshall employees are invited. The campaign at Marshall will be held May 18-29. Contact: Dorthy Barnett, 4-7542

Visit TABES
Tues. and Wed.
Von Braun Ctr.

Back Injury
Prevention Class
1-2:30 p.m. Wed.,
Bldg. 4752,
All Purpose Rm.

Order Business Cards by May 18; Costs To Increase on June 1

NASA business card prices will increase substantially on June 1, according to the NASA Exchange Office at Marshall. NASA employees and retirees interested in ordering business cards at the current rates, should do so by May 18. Visit the NASA Exchange in Bldg. 4752 for current rates or to place an order. Contact: NASA Exchange, 4-7564